

I have enjoyed New Jersey's do not call list, which precludes companies that you have done business with in the past 18 months from calling you.

This law must be preserved. If I want to contact a company that I have done business with, I can do so. I do not want to have my privacy disturbed.

Do not force NJ to modify a very good law.